

Ready for the Transforming Episode Accountability Model (TEAM)?

To successfully prepare for TEAM, hospitals must enhance episodic care with data-driven improvements, assess care coordination and identify cost-saving opportunities. As the 2024 Best in KLAS Award winner for Value-Based Care Consulting, Premier is here to guide your hospital's preparation.

Let Premier Be Your Partner Through Change:

- Start with a TEAM episode opportunity analysis using CMS claims data to assess your hospital's readiness for the Jan. 1, 2026 deadline.
- The cost of a TEAM episode opportunity analysis starts at $13,500* per hospital. Within weeks, our consultants will assess your readiness.

What's Included in the TEAM Episode Opportunity Analysis:

- Education on TEAM and how CMS will administer the model.
- Data analysis to measure performance and identify opportunities for success.
- Recommendations that highlight strengths, weaknesses and areas for improvement.

How Premier Offers Additional Support:

Request a TEAM Organizational Readiness Assessment – Our TEAM organizational readiness assessment, including the TEAM episode opportunity analysis, provides a comprehensive review of governance, care coordination and physician engagement. This robust evaluation identifies high-impact opportunities to optimize care delivery and financial performance.

Join the Bundled Payment Collaborative (BPC) – Premier's BPC provides your organization with a unique opportunity to accelerate the transition to value-based care, optimize episode-based payment models and drive better outcomes for your patients.

Explore Premier's Advisory Services – Our tailored solutions help you optimize clinical and financial outcomes, enhance patient care, and seamlessly transition to value-based care models like the Transforming Episode Accountability Model (TEAM).
